About Systemic Family Constellation Work (SFCW):

Systemic Constellation Work is a phenomenological, powerful, solution-focused process with potentially life-altering results. It addresses the underlying, often sub-conscious, interpersonal and trans-generational dynamics and entanglements that govern us, our families and all the social groups we are a part of. In SFC we can see, feel and experience how these dynamics, which can also work to our detriment, play out and shape us. SFCW offers ways to turn these dynamics and entanglements into powerful forces for a greater sense of belonging, direction, natural order and balance. The precision, depth and elegance of this process can be both astounding and humbling. It reveals how connected we are with others on our human journey and how deep the bonds of loyalty and love can go. Be prepared to leave deeply touched.

Systemic Constellation Work has proven to be very effective with the following issues:

- Clarifying, resolving and integrating personal or family-related issues
- recurring (dysfunctional) family themes
- anxieties, depression, panic attacks and other problematic mental conditions
- compulsive thoughts and self-weakening beliefs
- supporting questions of personal direction and growth
- regaining self-esteem and confidence
- removing internal obstacles
- clarifying, processing and integrating relationship issues
- fertility issues
- unresolved grief and loss
- separation and divorce themes
- psychosomatic and „unexplainable“ illness
- eating disorders
- conflict resolution
- decision-making processes
- work-place harassment
- and much more
